

Academic Report on Human Rights Day Movie Screening

Event Title: Movie Screening on Human Rights Day

Date: 11th December 2023

Venue: Kandi Raj College, Kandi, Murshidabad

Organised by: Department of Political Science, Kandi Raj College

Introduction

On 11th December 2023, the Department of Political Science at Kandi Raj College organised a movie screening to commemorate Human Rights Day. The event focused on the theme of freedom, equality, and justice for all. The documentary "Where Should the Birds Fly?" was screened, which addresses the human rights struggles faced in conflict zones, particularly through the lens of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. The event was attended by 30 faculty members and students.

Program Overview

The program began with an introductory speech by Mr. Tapas Das, who highlighted the importance of Human Rights Day and its relevance to global issues of freedom and justice. Following the introduction, the documentary was screened, providing a powerful narrative about the ongoing human rights violations and the resilience of individuals fighting for justice and equality.

After the screening, Mrs. Dewkala Tamang, Head-In-Charge of the Department of Political Science, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the participants and emphasising the need for continued advocacy for human rights.

Conclusion

The movie screening successfully raised awareness about the vital themes of human rights, freedom, and justice. It offered valuable insights into the real-world struggles for human dignity and encouraged reflection on how these issues affect individuals globally. The event contributed to a meaningful discussion on the importance of human rights in today's world.
