

100 Years of Badal Sircar: His Third Theater and its Relevance Today

You are cordially invited to a seminar on "100 years of Badal Sircar: His third theatre & its relevance today". Badal Sircar, was a pioneering figure in Indian theatre, most known for his anti-establishment plays during the naxalite movement in the 1970s. The seminar, organized by the Department of Political Science, Kandi Raj College in association with the Department of Economics and IQAC of Kandi Raj College and in collaboration with Subhash Chandra Bose Centenary College, Lalbagh along with Jangipur College, Murshidabad. This seminar will explore the significance of Sircar's Third Theatre movement and its impact on community theatre worldwide.

Date: August 12, 2025

Time: 11:30 a.m. Onwards

Venue: NH Hall, Kandi Raj College

The poster features a background image of a theatrical performance. At the top, there are three logos: a red star with '75' (Kandi Raj College), a blue circular logo (Department of Political Science), and a laurel wreath logo (Subhas Chandra Bose Centenary College). The text on the poster includes:

Celebrating the 75th Foundation Anniversary of Kandi Raj College

Under the on-going MoU between Kandi Raj College, Kandi, Murshidabad and Subhas Chandra Bose Centenary College, Lalbagh & Jangipur College, Murshidabad

100 YEARS OF BADAL SIRCAR:
HIS THIRD THEATRE AND ITS RELEVANCE TODAY

Date: 12th August 2025 (Tuesday)
Venue: NH Hall, Kandi Raj College
Time: 11:30 AM Onwards

Speakers:

- Prof. Sanchayan Ghosh, Department of Painting, Kala Bhavana, Visva-Bharati
- Mr. Deepro Majumder, Assistant Professor in Economics, Kandi Raj College

Organizers:

Department of Political Science, Kandi Raj College
In association with:
Department of Economics & IQAC, Kandi Raj College
In Collaboration with:
Subhas Chandra Bose Centenary College, Lalbagh & Jangipur College, Murshidabad

A portrait of Badal Sircar is shown on the right side of the poster.